Biography

In a professional concert and operatic career from 1988-2020, Andrew Foote performed more than 30 operatic roles for professional companies throughout Australia – including his acclaimed Ned Keene in Peter Grimes for which he received a 2010 Helpmann Award.

His performances as recitalist, oratorio soloist, recording artist, crossover cabaret artist, opera principal and opera director consistently drew superb accolades.

As an academic, Andrew passes an eclectic mix of skills and expertise to students drawn from his diverse career as a solo and ensemble singer (including opera on the national stage), a recording artist, his specialisation in German Lieder and Baroque repertoire, his experience as a stage director, his business expertise and experience, and his one to one coaching of business leaders. He was a 2020 recipient of a UWA FABLE Faculty Teaching Award, and is a regular recipient of various student teaching awards.

In 2019 he was appointed Chorus Director to the West Australian Symphony Orchestra Chorus.
