

Dr. Francesco Gerali
School of Humanities
Postal address:
The University of Western Australia (M204), 35 Stirling Highway, 6009
Perth
Western Australia
Australia

Employment

IEEE Pugh Scholar

IEEE

United States

1 Jan 2019 → present

Employment

Honorary Research Fellow

School of Humanities

8 Aug 2015 → present

IEEE Pugh Scholar

IEEE

United States

1 Jan 2019 → present

Employment

Coordinator for the Historical Research. Member of the Scientific Council of the Museo dell'Energia of Ripi (FR), Italy. 09/2019 - Present Francesco is founding member of the Scientific Committee of the Museo dell'Energia (Energy Museum) of Ripi, and Coordinator for the historical studies on the petroleum explorations developed in the Valle Latina from the 1860s to the 1950s. Thanks to the funds provided by the Lazio Regional Administration (Decree May 20, 2020, n°G06026 - L.R n° 24/2019 Annual Plan 2020) he is curating the digital humanities project Petroleum History Library - repository of manuscript and printed resources for the history of the petroleum industry - supervises the production of 3 documentaries and translates Italian to English contents for the Museum website.

Visiting Research Scholar, University of Oklahoma School of Library and Information Studies, Norman, OK, United States 08/2018 - 08/2019 Using his expertise in the information context of the Oil & Gas Industry, Francesco organized and implemented at the OU Bizzell Memorial Library a colloquium with information professionals and data specialists from academia, government agencies, and the oil industry. He developed activities in bibliography and biographies and edited syllabus for the courses "Philosophy of Information", "Information Ethics" "History of Information" and "Competitive Intelligence". Seminars Taught: - Science, technology, society and problems in scientific communication. - Relationships between scientific knowledge and information.